

RUSSELL and CORPSE are likewise Patenters and Manufacturers of METALLIC RAIN-ROOF, MULDING, and BRASS, COPPER, OR ZINC, FOR SHIP PRUNTS, WINDOW FRAMES, SKILLOTTES, AND FANLIGHT OTHER PURCHASES. Also, from the same materials, Rain-water Pipes or Zirconia Pipes, Rain, Plain or Ornamental, handseverely Rivetted, Moulded, and Painted Plates, best Plate Glass, and Internal Iron Framings, all kinds, superior in quality and workmanship, and lower in price than any other establishment in the Kingdom, or of any Country.

Office: Draining and Pumping for the Trade.

Office at No. 38, Lombard-street, London; Works, at Deptford, Kent.

Manufacturers, Drawing, Planning, and Moulding, Cutting and Chiselling on Iron, Brass, and Steel, especially for Builders' Purposes, may be seen on application at the Works.

PATRONS
Right Honourable Lord Roberts, Garter, M.P.
W. B. Francis, Esq., Cadogan place, Chelsea. Magistrate for the County of Middlesex.
Lieut. John Gordon, R.D., LL.D., Walton place, Brompton.
Rev. William Niven, Incumbent of St. Mark's, Upper Chelsea.
Rev. J. M. Boule, St. John's Hill, Battersea.

The next and following numbers of THE BRILLARE will contain a series of correct and beautiful illustrations of the New House of Lords and adjoining Hall.